

Klove is a blessing to our family in Raleigh, NC heard on 106.7 FM and I do not want the signal changed. It is family friendly programming that I do not have to monitor its content for my children. I do not want the the signal over ridden by a LPFM station. KLOVE is a positive service that is in the public interest because it's programming is uplifting and encouraging.